CONGRESS IN BRIEF.

The House continued the consideration of the District of Columbia appropriation bill. Mr. Hepburn criticised the condition of Washington's pavements, and held the Commissioners responsible therefor. Mr. Clark, of Missouri, on a point of order, killed an item allowing $75,000 for the purchase of children's playgrounds. Mr. Kline, of Pennsylvania, urged that the District be given two Delegates in Congress. Mr. Olmsted, of Pennsylvania, spoke in opposition to the discontinuance of the Carlisle Indian School.
